

Recreation and Parks Director

The City of Jacksonville, NC, population 80,000, has an immediate opening for Recreation and Parks Director. Position requires a Bachelors Degree with course work in recreation and park administration, or related field, and at least seven years experience in the administration of programs and development and planning of recreation facilities. At least five of those seven years must include supervisory experience. A Masters Degree and possession of CPRP are preferred. Experience in working with the public to determine desires of community is also required. Jacksonville is a growing, progressive, active municipality located in coastal North Carolina, adjacent to Camp Lejeune and within 30 minutes of many other North Carolina beaches. Must be willing to relocate within Jacksonville, NC city limits within six months of employment with City. Salary commensurate with experience and excellent benefit package. Please visit the City of Jacksonville website at www.ci.jacksonville.nc.us to apply. EOE/ M/F/D/V